

Northumbria PCC Consultation Responses 2021

Kim McGuinness, in her capacity of Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC), responds to various consultations and inquiries held by the Government and other agencies, providing evidence and insight into a wide range of topics relating to crime and policing. By doing so, the Commissioner aims to influence future policy and ensure the views and needs of Northumbria are put forward.

The PCC has provided a response to the following consultations:

January 2021

- Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) consultation on the updated rape and sexual offences legal guidance

February 2021

- College of Policing consultation on extracting data from electronic devices
- Home Office call for evidence on the Violence Against Women and Girls Strategy 2021-24

March 2021

- National Institute for Health Research call for research around public health interventions led by or involving the police

June 2021

- Law Commission consultation on intimate image abuse

September 2021

- Home Office survey for the Offensive Weapon Homicide Review
- Home Office consultation on the Domestic Abuse Act statutory guidance